OVERVIEW

INTRODUCTION ON GYEONGGI GRAND TOUR

Around 1,000 years ago, in 1018, King Hyeonjong of Goryeo reorganized the central and regional administrative systems. In this process, the then capital Gaegyeong and surrounding 12 counties, prefectures and cities were merged together into Gyeonggi. Gyeonggi-do encompasses the Hangang River and Seoul that cut across the Korean Peninsula. As such, Gyeonggi-do has served as a strategic location in 1,000 years of history.

Gyeonggi Grand Tour is the historic, cultural and ecological travel routes covering all areas of Gyeonggi-do. The travel routes have been developed in a way to allow you to easily find the historic, cultural and ecological tourist spots in one view by grouping the spots that are scattered all over the province by themes. Experience Gyeonggi-do that has abundant historic and cultural sites and beautiful natural environment using Gyeonggi Grand Tour!

HIGHLIGHTS

THE 50 MAIN SPOTS OF GYEONGGI GRAND TOUR

1 Hwaseong Fortress

Hwaseong Fortress is the culmination of the technology of that time. Now, after 200 years, Hwaseong Fortress has become the stronghold that protects the center of Suwon city. The fortress walls that were built with bricks for the first time look firm and classic. 190, Yeonmu-dong, Jangan-gu, Suwon-si

2 Yungneung and Geolleung Royal Tombs

Yungneung is the joint tomb of Posthumous King Jangjo, also known as Prince Sado, and his wife Queen Heongyeong, and Geolleung is the joint tomb of King Jeongjo and his wife Queen Hyoui. As the two tombs are situated in one location, the two are also collectively known as "Yunggelleung."

21-1, Hyohaeng-ro 481beon-gil, Hwaseong-si

3 Jaeamri 3·1 Independence Movement Site

Soon after the 3·1 Independence Movement was launched in 1919, the independence uprisings spread across the nation with the sound of "hurrah to a free Korea!" Fierce uprisings also took place in Hwaseong. You can learn more about the 3·1 Independence Movement and Jaeam-ri Incident. 322-4, Jeam-ri, Hyangnam-eup, Hwaseong-si

4 Sudosa Temple

Sudosa Temple is where Monk Wonhyo attained enlightenment after drinking water from a skull. The temple now has a space where visitors can experience Monk Wonhyo's enlightenment. 58, Hoam-gil, Poseung-eup, Pyeongtaek-si

5 Gungpyeong-ri Village

At Gungpyeong-ri Village, visitors can choose either to take a rest enjoying the view of the leisurely and quiet sea or to have a memorable time experiencing fishing village life. The offshore of Gungpyeong-ri serves as a habitat for a variety of costal species. 1069-11, Gungpyeonghang-ro, Seosin-myeon, Hwaseong-si

6 Daebu Bada Hyanggi Theme Park

With the Sihwa Seawall built, the mudflat turned into marsh. The vast site consists of nine zones including Entrance Plaza, Coastal Green Forest and Lawn Plaza. The salt plants growing only in salty, desolate wetlands offer a unique view against the backdrop of the surrounding environment. 1841-10, Daebubuk-dong, Danwon-gu, Ansan-si

7 Moon Observatory at Sihwa Narae Tidal Power Culture Pavilion

The Sihwa Narae Tidal Power Park is a maritime park built with soil and sand dug up for constructing the Sihwa Lake Tidal Power Station. The moon observatory located next to Korea's first and world's largest Sihwa Lake Tidal Power Station is 75 meters tall or as high as a 25-story apartment building. 1927, Daebuhwanggeum-ro, Danwon-gu, Ansan-si

8 Byeolmangseong Fortress

Byeolmangseong was a stone wall stronghold built along the slope facing the sea in the 15th century during the Joseon dynasty. It was used as a fortification of naval forces for protecting the shoreline. Today, Byeolmangseong is nothing but an old fortress site, but the view seen from here is still stunning. 656, Choji-dong, Danwon-gu, Ansan-si

9 Wolgot Harbor

This is a harbor built in Wolgot, and residents in nearby Siheung call this land protruding toward the sea "Dalwol." The harbor is also a famous place where people can eat raw live fish, which are even fresher and tastier. The taste of raw fish enjoyed while watching the scenery of the sea is beyond compare. Wolgot-dong, Siheung-si

10 Siheung Gaetgol Eco Park

There is an eco-park built in Siheung tidal channel ^[gaetgol in Korean] which was designated as a national wetland protected area in February 2012. Walking through the park slowly, visitors can meet salt plants and a variety of fish and amphibian species. 287, Dongseo-ro, Siheung-si

11 Gwangmyeong Cave

The cave was first built as a coal mine in 1912, and it had remained obscure for over 40 years, during which it was used as a salted shrimp storage facility, but it has been newly rebuilt as a cultural and tourist attraction since 2011. 142, Gahak-ro 85beon-gil, Gwangmyeong-si

Everland, located deep inside Cheoin-gu, Yongin city, is the theme park that has gained popularity not only from Koreans but also among foreign tourists. The theme park consists of five themed zones including Global Fair, American Adventure, Magic Land, European Adventure and Zootopia. It is fair to say that everyone can do all the things they have dreamt of at this theme park such as walking through the beautiful architectures around the world where the rhythmic songs can be heard, taking rides in the western region of the U.S., enjoying the view of gardens at European villages and connecting with animals on a boat.

According to the poll in 2016, the most popular attraction in Everland is Lost Valley in Zootopia. This is the place where visitors can enjoy safari aboard the world's first amphibious vehicle in the park that looks like wild grassland. The second attraction to that is T-Express, a roller coaster that drops at the angle of 77 degrees on a wooden rail at a speed of 104 kilometers per hour. Another attraction that cannot be missed is the splendid and colorful Moonlight Parade that brightens up the dark night. The exciting night-time parade is held led by a large glittering parade car.

2 Uiwang Rail Park

Uiwang, the city located at the center of the Seoul Metropolitan Area closely to six cities including Anyang, Gunpo, Gwacheon, Suwon, Seongnam and Ansan, houses Wangsong Lake, the largest lake in the Seoul Metropolitan Area. This man-made ecological wetland with 640-meter-long bank and 2.07 million tons of water storage is home to various migratory birds, fish species, swamps and water plants for four seasons.

The 4.3-kilometer bike course spans from the boarding zone through the Flower Tunnel, Pop-up Museum, bike stops, Photo Zone and Speed Zone and completes with Mist Zone. You will feel refreshed with all your stresses gone while riding an open bike feeling the cool wind. The sunset view here is also considered as the most beautiful in the Seoul Metropolitan Area. The lake that reflects the mysterious glow of the sunset offers a landscape of beauty different from the daytime.

Nearby facilities include the Bird Ecology Museum, Clean Water Treatment Facility and Korea's first Special Railroad Zone that consists of the Korea Railroad Research Institute, the Korea National University of Transportation and the Railroad Museum, which all can serve as a great destination for children's field trips.

SeoulLand was opened in May 1988 before the Seoul Olympics began. As the first theme park of Korea, SeoulLand consists of various themed areas such as World Square, Adventure Land, Fantasy Land, Tomorrow Land and Samcheonri Hill where man and women of all ages can have an enjoyable time. SeoulLand has continued to grow for the last 30 years to become one of the most popular tourist attractions in Gyeonggi-do where many people frequently visit with their families, lovers and friends.

The attractions popular among children include Kids Land, Cloud Bread, Bumper Cars and Best Kids. Among them, Best Kids is a large-scale indoor play facility that measures 1,300m² in area featuring Tower Playground, Kids Train and Wave Slide, providing an exciting play space for children. Meanwhile, the attractions that are thrilling and fun include King Biking, Flume Ride, Sky X and Double Loop Coaster. Plummeting in a cable from 50 meters above the ground or soaring vertically to 52 meters above the ground at a speed of 85 kilometers per hour will make you feel thrilled. On top of that, you can even enjoy a variety of seasonal festivals, which altogether will make your day a memorable one.

Woongjin Playdoci is an urban leisure sports theme park built on a 94,000-square-meter area, which houses indoor skiing center, waterpark & spa, golf range and other facilities. This place is virtually a paradise for sports where people can enjoy leisure sports anytime. The most distinctive feature of Woongjin Playdoci is Korea's one and only indoor skiing center. The 270-meter-long and 70-meter-wide skiing facility with a 15-degree advanced slope and an 11-degree intermediate slope maintains its snow to its best condition all year round so that visitors can enjoy skiing and boarding all year round. The facility also features the snow sledding slope and igloo experience zone, making the center a great field trip destination for children.

Waterdoci that houses waterpark and spa is the optimal spot for water play. The seven water slides including Zebra Slide and Space Ball and various spa facilities located both on a 5,000-pyeong outdoor site and in a 1,000-pyeong indoor area offer a different type of entertainment experience. The golf range, the longest range with the largest number of tee stations in Korea, is another feature boasted by Woongjin Playdoci.
